

High Fidelity Wraparound is a proven process to guide youth and families to achieve their hopes and dreams. It helps youth stay at home, in school and out of trouble by forming a team of people from different parts of a family's life.

The process is designed to support and empower families to be self-sustainable with the help of the team they create. It follows 10 guiding principles as the beacon to everything it practices:

- Family voice and choice
- Team-based
- Natural supports
- Collaboration
- Community-based
- Culturally competent
- Individualized
- Strengths-based
- Unconditional care
- Outcomes-based

Youth involvement

When young people are actively involved in their care decisions, they are more likely to follow through and achieve positive outcomes. Magellan believes youth should:

- Be seen as experts in their own lives
- Be actively involved in the High Fidelity Wraparound process
- Choose their own goals and decide how they will achieve them

Youth may benefit greatly from participating in a program called MY LIFE (Magellan Youth Leaders Inspiring Future Empowerment). It:

- Is free
- Is offered to anyone, ages 13 – 23
- Actively engages youth through teaching, coaching and mentoring
- Teaches youth how to use their voice
- Helps youth inspire others to create positive change for themselves and in their community
